I was brought up in a Salvation Army Church. I was baptised under a flag. But I didn't know about Salvation. I left my home and the church plus my district and where I was staying one pastor and elder visited me and showed me about Salvation. We knew that we were sinners and agreed me plus my wife got saved the same day. We continued with Baptist Church Baptized. I was to teach Sunday School and have the position Secretary too. While I was doing that God called me in the ministry. I joined Bible School for three years. When I finished I started a church and God blessed in so many ways - I have started more churches because of God's hands.
